

Paper Products You Can Recycle

Shipping boxes - don't forget to empty and flatten them first

Mail and envelopes (even with windows), paper greeting cards and coupons

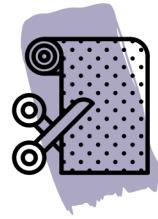

Emptied takeout and frozen food containers, including ice cream cartons

Pizza boxes - even with the grease and stuck on cheese

Glossy magazine and newsprint - no need to remove the staples

Wrapping paper (with no foil, glitter or plastic) and the cardboard tube

White and colored paper

Boxes that pile up - like cereal, candy, cosmetics, shoe and tissue boxes

Beverage cups (check local guidelines)

Paper bags

Juice and milk cartons (caps can be kept on)

Paper molded egg cartons

Important recycling tips:

- Always check your local guidelines to see what's accepted in your area. When you wishcycle - put something in the bin hoping it will be recycled - you're actually harming the recycling process.
- Keep paper products dry & clean before placing them in the recycling bin.
- Contact your local hauler or municipality if they don't accept these items to ask them to start.
